DIVA

Her name – the aim was finding an Italian name, that had to be short, prompt but also internationally known, in order to highlight the qualities of the mascot. The peculiarity to add a '09' to name Diva, includes not only a temporal reference that matches with the Swimming World Championships,, but makes the name unique and exclusive and gains a bit of starrng that the mascot wants to have.

FORO ITALICO

The Foro Italico will be the centre of the XIII FINA World Championships which will consist of four permanent and two temporary pools for Swimming, Diving, Water Polo and Synchronised Swimming.

There is over 400,000 people expected to visit the Foro Italico over 17 days of competition with 1800 athletes from 200 countries and 2000 volunteers and 1500 media covering the event.

OSTIA – OPEN WATER VENUE

Ostia, the port of ancient Rome, now lying 5km/3mi inland from the Tyrrhenian Sea and close to Fiumicino Airport, is the largest excavation site in Italy after Pompeii.

The access for spectators along the coast makes the open water events exciting and easy to watch from the shoreline.
